1. You can use banded rows only with tables.

1 / 1 point

- ☐ True
- ☒ False

✔ Correct

You can create banded rows in several ways without using tables, however the table design tools make it easy and convenient.

2. You can select the whole table (including headings) by:

1 / 1 point

- ☐ Going to the top-left-hand corner of the table (until an arrow appears) and clicking once.
- ☐ Pressing Ctrl+A once while you are in the table.
- ☐ Right-clicking anywhere in the table and going to Select.
- ☒ Pressing Ctrl+A twice when you are in the table.

✔ Correct

If you press Ctrl+A once you will select the data without the headings. You need to press Ctrl+A twice to select the headings as well.
